The last couple of months have seen a slew of new restaurant openings, offering everything from European cuisine to healthy Asian fare and Mexican tapas. We list out the hottest new places and new menus worth checking out across Mumbai, Delhi, Jaipur, Goa, Bengaluru and Chennai.

Delhi-NCR

SAGA—Cuisines of India

Michelin-star chef, Atul Kochhar, is back with his latest venture along with restaurateur Vishal Anand. SAGA pays ode to modern Indian cuisine with slick interiors, serving a mix of signature cocktails and other tipples. The 190-seater space is split over two levels and includes an al fresco dining section as well. The food is inspired by different Indian regions, with dishes like the Baingan Chokha and Burrata, Kori Gassi, Tawa Pulao, Timur Lamb Chops, Lentil Quesadilla, and a range of curries. The desserts are Indian-inspired too.
